In development or moral, political, and bioethical philosophy, autonomy is the capacity to make an informed, un-coerced decision. Autonomous organizations or institutions are independent or self-governing. Autonomy can also be defined from a human resource perspective and it means a level of discretion granted to an employee in his or her work. In such cases, autonomy is known to bring some benefits.

Language learning strategies is a term referring to the processes and actions that are consciously deployed by language learners to help them to learn or use a language more effectively. They have also been defined as thoughts and actions, consciously chosen and operationalized by language learners, to assist them in carrying out a multiplicity of tasks from the very outset of learning to develop proficiency. Language learning strategies are also defined from the human resource perspective and it means a level of discretion granted to employees in their work. In such cases, autonomy is known to bring some benefits.
